

MAUREEN F. WILSON – Vita

- born in England, 1925
- educated @ the Univ. of London
- immigrated to Canada in 1957 and joined UBC Library in 1959
- Head of the UBC Library's Map Division 1965 till her retirement in 1989, and was very well liked by her staff and colleagues
- taught occasional courses in map librarianship in UBC's library school
- founding member of ACMLA in 1967, and held various committee chairships & exec & editorial positions through the years
- joined WAML in 1970
- co-hosted (with Frances Woodward) a no. of WAML & ACMLA conferences
- active church member, traveller and animal lover
- died peacefully in Vancouver General Hospital Nov. 16, 2004 after a series of heart attacks

Submitted by Tim Ross, Map Librarian, University of British Columbia, July 27, 2011